We began serving families in 2006, providing wrap around support to 3 families. In 2022, Imagine LA worked with 275 families, serving a total of 642 individuals (an increase from 208 families in 2021). Our most significant growth was through our Economic Mobility Program Expansion Pilot with four partner agencies, as well as through our first place-based initiative at the Missouri Place permanent supportive housing complex. This year, as Imagine LA continues to grow the Economic Mobility Program and Social Benefit pilots the Social Benefit Navigator tool, we anticipate serving 320 families by working alongside heads of household and individuals.

Imagine LA’s holistic Family Partnership Model is comprised of complementary pillars designed to ensure that whole families have access to resources, social capital, and economic mobility to build intergenerational family stability. The components of this model include:

- Imagine C.A.R.E. (Compassion, Advocacy, Resilience, Equity), where our professional Family Team Managers partner with families to provide intensive case management across the model's components to stabilize families in their homes and help them identify and achieve their goals;
- Economic Mobility Program, through which families accelerate their work to break the cycle of family poverty through our financial wellness programming, Living Wage Jobs Pathways, navigation of the social safety net, and the search for viable childcare options;
